Miss Daly City Finals Tuesday

Selection of Miss Daly City, the second and final phaze of the local queen contest sponsored by the Daly City-Colma Chamber of Commerce, will be held Tuesday, May 29, at 7 p.m. at the Steak Pit, Junipero Serra boulevard and Pierce Street, Colma.

Five finalists will vie for the coveted crown, this time wearing formal dress, rather than the swim-suit attire which they displayed so bewitchingly last Friday at the preliminaries at Coronado Apartments in Westlake.

The girls the judges picked as the prettiest among 15 shivering lovelies there at the breezy pool were Claudia Smith, Mary Ann Welker, Nancy Angelot, Sharon Schroder and Susan Thorne.

The Girls

Blond, winsome Mary Ann Welker, 16, a sophomore at Jefferson High, plans to enter the ice follies after graduation. Combining sewing and skating as her favorite pasttimes, Miss Welker is 5-6½ and measures 36-24, 35. She resides at 589 Bellevue.

Claudia Smith, a poised young lady who models part time at the Jack Tar Hotel, is 17 and a senior at Westmoor High. Her favorite pastime is swimming. A resident of 71 Garden Grove drive, she plans a fashion modeling career after graduation. Among the tallest in the competition, Claudia measures 38-26-38½.

Sharon Schroder, 16, is 5-10 and is the outdoor type, plainly seen by the beautiful suntan she said she acquired over "Easter Weekend." A senior at Jefferson, Sharon, likes to sketch and to roller skate. She plans to become a secretary after graduation.

Susan Thorne, 18, resides at 16 Oakmont. Dark haired, dark eyed Susan, is 5-1, weights 104 and works in the accounting department at Macy's in San Francisco. She is a talented clothes designer and plans eventually to design and model her own clothes.

Nancy Angelot, 17, of 269 South Parkview, is a majorette at Jefferson High and plans on a business secretary career following graduation. A dark haired miss who enjoys ice skating, Nancy is 5-5, and measures 35-22-35½.

The Competition

Late entrants in the contest were Charlotte Risy, 16, of 20 Perita Drive; Glory Cleland of 54 Como street; Jeanne Marie Allan, 210 Palisades drive and Miss Thorne.

Also competing were Diana Killmon, Leanne Roscow, Judy Ogle, Linda Quinteros, Elaine Eckert and Roberta Bacci.

Master of ceremonies was Fred Martin of the Chamber of Commerce. Judges were Judge Charles Becker, Mayor Joseph Verducci, Charles Maroosis, Jack Wood and Monte Dayton.

Top Eight Students Have College Plans

The top eight young men and women of the Jefferson Union High School District were honored by the Daly City-Colma Chamber Commerce on Thursday night, May 17, at an awards banquet at the Steak Pit Restaurant.

Most impressive are the college plans they have made to further their outstanding work.

Carla Gomez, top student in liberal arts at Westmoor, has won a liberal arts scholarship to Reed College, Portland, Ore.

Jim Lucke, science and mathematics award winner at Westmoor, will study engineering this fall at the University of California.

Science and mathematics honor student Jerry Keefe has University of California plans in his field.

Frank Lazo, liberal arts award winner at Jefferson, will study at the University of California. And vocational arts top student at Jeff, Duane Tebeau, will follow vocational arts instruction studies at College of San Mateo.

No Merit Pay For 'Poor' Teachers

The Jefferson Elementary District Board of Trustees on Monday, May 21, adopted a resolution that unsatisfactory teachers will not move on the salary schedule either horizontally or vertically.

Action came after a merit pay discussion at the last board meeting in which board member Thomas Noonan suggested the resolution.

A meeting will be held Monday night at the Garden Village school to discuss how many classes should be sent to M. Pauline Brown school as part of the 1962-963 movement of students schedule. Meeting date was set after representatives from the school asked that only one class be moved.

The board also adopted a non-certificated employee salary schedule with an increase of $10 per month and contribution of $5 per month toward hospitalization. No action was taken on administrative salary schedule.

Mona To Write Women's Column

Sparkling, vivacious Mona Baker, whose "Shopping With Sally" and "TV and Radio" columns have been a feature for the past several years, will begin a new column next week.

Her "From a Feminine Viewpoint" will feature news items of interest to both men and women, parties and club meetings, organizations, fashion-decorating news and profiles of outstanding women in the local area who have made a contribution to their community.

During the nine years Mona has been a TV-radio columnist on this paper she interviewed hundreds of celebrities, including Bob Hope, Steve Allen, George Gobel, Shirley Temple Black, Dinah Shore, Lawrence Welk, Rod Sterling, Tennessee Ernie Ford, Linda Darnell, Fred MacMurray and many others.

Also Science

She was the only weekly television columnist invited to the Westinghouse national educational television conference held at Stanford University several years ago.

Reprints of Mona's five "Science in Action" columns have been sent by the California Academy of Sciences to more than 2,000 editors and newspapers around the country. They have ordered more reprints of her column than any other television columnist in the Bay area.

Mona's "Shopping With Sally" column has been a regular feature with this paper for the past five years. A fashion commentator for Daly City's 20th anniversary fashion show held last October, Mona has for the past three years been fashion commentator for monthly YWCA fashion show-luncheon. Eureka Square Shopping Center Opens In Pacifica

Eureka Square—the new 1.3 million dollar shopping complex just south of the Sharp Park district of Pacifica on State Highway 1 opened Friday, May 18 with a three day festive celebration which included gifts, prizes and personal appearances by television personality "Mayor Art" and the Pacifica Sweethearts marching band.

Taking part in the ribbon-cutting ceremonies which formally opened the center, one of the largest in the West Bay, were (l to r.) Paul Rushing, deputy director of Public Works of Pacifica, Harlen Minshew, city councilman of Pacifica, Mayor George Mason, Mrs. Jean Fassler, first Mayoress of Pacifica and present city councilwoman, Andres Oddstand developer of the center and President of Oddstad Homes and James Foster, manager of the Eureka Square office of Eureka Federal Savings and Loan Association.

Included in the festive program, along with special opening values at all participating stores, was a personal appearance on Saturday, May 19, from 1 p.m. to 3 p.m. of Mayor Art, star of KRON-TV's afternoon children's show. On Friday evening the Pacifica Sweethearts Marching Band performed. On Saturday the Pacifica Clowns entertained and gave away gifts of balloons, Indian war bonnets and other awards to everyone attending the opening festivities. On Saturday and Sunday, various Boy Scouts of America exhibits and demonstrations took place in the Square's parking lot.

The new shopping center planned and built by A. F. Oddstad, president of Oddstad Homes and builder of Linda Mar will include an apartment house development covering 14 acres. The new retail complex consists of four major buildings housing twelve retail stores, including the Red Robin Supermarket, Eureka Federal Savings and Loan Association, Farber's Pharmacy, Park Variety Store, Alexander's Home Furnishings, the Eureka Square Barber Shop and other retail service and specialty stores. The center will offer parking facilities for over 300 cars.

The center is financed by Eureka Federal Savings and Loan Association which has located its new Pacifica office in the Square.

'Up From The Ranks' Detectives Do Well

The on the job training program for detectives in the Daly City police department has worked out quite well.

The program, which began last November, brings up men from the ranks who have shown special capacities in investigation.

Patrolman Frank Murray, the first recruit from the ranks, figured in 13 arrests in three months. These 13 arrests paved the way for several more arrests.

Patrolman James Bergstrom, who leaves his detective post this week to make way for the three month tenure of patrolman James Doran, had a direct hand in 22 arrests. He and Lieut. David Hansen arrested the Rivera brothers, who were involved in 200 area burglaries.

Bergstrom assisted in the arrest of the four Daly City firemen involved in arson charges and helped in investigation of the recent Thornton Beach shotgun slaying.

Lieut. Hansen said the program has really paid off because the men "work day and night" to make good.

They get more of a chance to work at bigger cases, he said; usually all are felonies, burglaries, etc.

Slain Cop Taught Traffic School In Daly City

The highway patrolman who shot it out and lost with an avowed cop-hater Tuesday in a furious duel that left both dead at the Hyatt House in Burlingame taught Traffic School classes on Wednesdays at the Daly City council chambers.

Doctors worked for an hour to save Highway Patrolman Dale Krings, 34, father of two, drilled through the forhead by Edward Lang Hargrove, 48, of 221 El Camino Real, San Mateo, one-time Los Angeles radio newsman and former mental patient.

The shooting occurred at 5:41 a.m. in the coffee shop of the swank hotel near the San Francisco International Airport at 1333 Old Bayshore Highway.

Armed Robbers Are Arrested

Daly City police May 18 arrested two men wanted for an armed robbery in Gilroy.

The men, Harold Dean Miller, 18, of 731 Hillside boulevard, who called himself a baseball player and Walter Lee Blankenship, 24, of 6151 Mission street, an unemployed car salesman, were arrested at 157 School street in Daly City.

Sgt. Charles Terry carried through an investigation which led to the arrest. The men are wanted for robbing a Gilroy liquor store, and officers are investigating to see if the men are connected with any of Daly City's unsolved armed robberies.

Pacifica Sets New Rec Fees

The Pacifica park, beach and recreation commission set up new fees for the use of community recreation buildings by private groups at their meeting last Thursday.

The commission moved to charge private or commerical groups $15 to $25 per night, depending on the size of the recreation building used.

They also moved to charge all private fund raising groups, who use the facilities, the basic fee and five percent of the gross receipts collected.

The commission inaugurated a recreational swim card fee of $5 which will prevail during week-ends and summer months at the Terra Nova pool. The card will allow children 22 swim sessions, high school students 16 and adults 14.

The meetings of the commission were reduced from twice a month to the third Tuesday of each month to alleviate a conflict in meeting dates with the North Coast county water district.

Memorial Day Tribute

The nation's heroes, who paid with their lives that freedom might live, will receive just tribute on Wednesday, May 30, Memorial Day. From one end of the country to the other, business and work will cease, while men and women gather to honor the dead.

From early days, when the occasion served to pay tribute only to those who had fallen in the Civil War, the holiday has grown in concept until today we honor all who made the supreme sacrifice in all of America's conflicts. Year after year, on Memorial Day, orators in thousands of cities and towns glorify the nation's heroes and plead for a united nation that will stand as a bulwark in defense of justice, freedom and equality.

This year their words will have still greater import, for they will be speaking at a time when our sacred institutions are threatened by a godless foe, substituting serfdom for liberty and oppression for justice.

Only by living as "one nation indivisible" can we resist the advances of totalitarianism in today's world of turmoil. It is for us to present a solid, resolute front against those who would divide us by race hate and religious prejudice.

Refreshing Example

While the debate over medicare for the nation's aged rages, it might be pertinent to call attention to a famed hospital which has quietly provided more than 130,000 days of care—at no cost to the patient or the taxpayer—to residents of California and to tens of thousands of other persons suffering from tuberculosis, asthma and other chest diseases. And it has done this regardless of age, race, creed or national origin.

The National Jewish Hospital at Denver doesn't have a cashier's window. It does have a motto: "None may enter who can pay . . . None can pay who enter." This does not mean that all of its patients are destitute. It simply represents the realistic recognition of a fact—that few salaried persons can afford the long hospitalization sometimes required for chronic disease. The hospital has abided by its unique policy for 63 years, and in the meantime has grown from one tiny building to a modern 325-bed research and treatment center known throughout the world for its contributions to chest medicine.

How does it survive? Literally tens of thousands of thoughtful, compassionate men and women all over the United States pay all the bills—not in the form of a tax or a premium, but in contributions totalling about $3 5 million annually.

The National Jewish Hospital, completely nonsectarian and free to all who need its services, is a refreshing example of man's acceptance of his responsibility to his fellow man.

"Vanity And Vexation . . ."

In case you just don't quite understand what all the furore over Billie Sol Estes is about (if anybody does), it begins to look as if you may have a chance to find out as Congressional investigations into Mr. Estes' remarkable influence and affluence are launched in both the House and Senate.

More important in the long run, certainly, than the conduct of Mr. Estes, the investigations should reveal the colossal vanity and foolishness of farm legislation by which politicians expect to control both nature and economics—and outlaw avarice. To be of any worthwhile benefit, these probes must break ground for a sane approach to the problems of producing and marketing the bounty of the soil.

Something For Everyone

by
Samuel Chandler

On the sweet and bitter pages of Letters to Mother, which was edited by Charles Van Doren, one reads the most intimate thoughts of leaders and artists as they faced crises that shaped the world. Here, for example, is the letter that President Truman wrote to his mother the day after he learned that he had become president of the United States. It is a sweet letter revealing the simplicity and directness of a man who stood at the center of the great events of 1945.

Here also is a letter that Napoleon wrote in 1805 as he stood at the height of his power. He had won the Battle of Austerlitz and Europe was at his feet, yet he had to beg his mother to discipline one of her sons. "Tell him that it is his sacred duty to obey me . . . and get his sisters to write, too."

One of the most tender letters is one written by an anonymous R.A.F. pilot to his mother. It was found among his effects after his death. Witness this paragraph: "I have always admired your amazing courage in the fact of continual setbacks; in the way you have given me as good an education and background as anyone in the country; and always kept up appearances without ever losing faith in the future. My death would not mean your struggle has been in vain. Far from it."

There are one hundred letters in the book. Among their authors are Theodore Roosevelt, Prince Albert, Helen Keller, Susan B. Anthony, Czar Nicholas (the last czar), Franklin D. Roosevelt, Lord Byron, St. Catherine, and William Randolph Hearst.

One letter is missing — that of the editor himself, Charles Van Doren. Remember him? He was the professor whose career was ruined by his part in a quiz show. I wonder what he wrote to his mother during his great crisis.

The View From ..Behind The Badge

Written and Edited by Daly City Police Department

There is a meeting in the City Hall council chambers. They are not councilmen who attend this meeting, nor commission members, nor board members. They are policemen.

The meeting is held here because there is not much room for such a meeting in the Police Station, which is old, antiquated, and over-crowded.

Administration officers and supervisors attend this meeting. The meeting concerns a course in Municipal Police Administration, and those present comprise the student group. The appropriate book is there and opened; it is published by the International City Managers' Association.

Captain Beecher, second in command of the department, presides.

Lieutenant Conci of the Third Platoon is present.

Lieutenant Hansen of the Investigation Division is there.

We can see Lieutenant Walsh of the Second Platoon.

Sergeant Terry of the Investigation Division is among the group.

Sergeant Galindo, patrol sergeant for the Third Platoon, is present.

Sergeant Sims, patrol sergeant for the Second Platoon, is also there.

The discussion concerns Chapter Five. The subject is "Training." All aspects of training are discussed. Conci comments on the lesson, for it is he who will compose the lesson to be mailed away for correcting and grading.

Analysis is made of our own departmental training. The analysis is critical. Some improvements are needed and will be made. The basic flaw in the departmental in-service training appears to be a certain lack of uniformity and central direction.

One method of eliminating this lack would be a written, published exemplification of Departmental Standard Operating Procedure. This will be a job and a half. Plans are laid to implement work on the project.

The daily roll call training is looked at, critically. It is here that uniformity is needed. Tentative plans are made to supplement uniform, scheduled training with a weekly hour-long overview of whatever subject it is being taught.

It is decided that the monthly range training, conducted by Rangemaster Welsh, is in good shape. The most recent session included use of shotguns and Reising sub machine guns, as well as some dabbling in tear gas.

Discussion centers, briefly, on Walsh's methods of instruction of the Reserves school and of his platoon.

Thought is given to the once-weekly class in self defense, which is conducted by Ed Tomasello of the recreation department.

And so the meeting drones on, and comes to a conclusion only after Sergeant Sime leaves the group to hold roll call training and to turn out his platoon.

Training is always going on. Late rthis month, Sergeant Sundermann will be at the California Highway Patrol Academy in Sacramento for three days of training. Sundermann will spend three days being instructed at the facility in the mechanics of pursuit driving of emergency vehicles.

The information there gleaned by the sergeant will be incorporated into the Daly City police training program. Information will, where pertinent, also be diseminated to other city departments through the driver training sections of the City Safety Program.

One part of the training program which does not need revision in any form belongs in the "on the job" category. This concerns the temporary assignment of patrolmen to the investigation division.

Each three months sees the assignment of a deserving, industrious, accomplished patrolman to the inspectors. He is assigned on merit, by the captain, from a list of recommendations supplied by the sergeants and the inspectors.

At the end of three months, the man returns to his former duties. He has been exposed to investigation methods (uninterrupted by other duties) and has had an opportunity to develop along these lines.

Such lateral transfers are administratively sound, and are of great value in a training sense. Better liaison between divisions has resulted. Two men have completed these duty tours, and both have performed with resounding success.

Officer Murray cleared numerous burglaries during his tour. His relief, Officer Bergstrom, has cleared a variety of cases by arrests. Next week, Bergstrom will return to the patrol division, replaced for a three-month period by another deserving officer.

The various training methods, continually revised and adjusted, are bearing fruit. Results are good and are improving. More improvement is needed.

One area of improvement would be the surmounting of the police building problem. Room is needed. A new building is needed. One such result would be a meeting room. While our personnel are constantly trained and improving, such meetings as the one described could proceed with greater efficiency if they did not have to meet in the council chambers.

TV and RADIO

By MONA BAKER

Already recognized as one of the leading radio and television schools in the nation, San Francisco State College will gain further recognition with the addition of a special summer session course for teachers on educational television.

Offering 6 units for credit, either in radio or education, the new course will be known as a workshop in instructional television covering all phases of the industry with practical experience in the production of programs.

The college possesses outstanding facilities for television production including studios, four cameras, control and film room. In addition to the regular staff, guest lecturers from Bay Area television will participate in the workshop.

Educational television offers a new and exciting field for teachers. As we have stressed so many times in our column, we have only scratched the surface of the potentials of this great educational tool.

For those interested in attending the workshop a brochure and pre-registration form is now available. Write: Dr. Richard H. Bell, Coordinator ITV Workshop, S. F. State College, 1600 Holloway Ave., San Francisco, Calif.

On the subject of the potentials of television do hope you saw the recent program over ABC, KGO-TV featuring Howard K. Smith analyzing "The Short Hectic Life of Television." Touching briefly on the past with memorable and historic film, the program then delved into the future.

One statement made was most impressive—of sixteen waking hours a day, the average viewing time is five hours. A rather frightening statistic and certainly a challenge to the industry and the viewing public as well to utilize this time wisely.

This new ABC series (KGO-TV, Wed. 7:30 p.m.) with Commentator Smith is a welcome addition to the schedule. He has a thought-provoking and straight forward approach to news which is both refreshing and stimulating.

Good news from KRON-TV is the announcement that a third series of weekly documentary reports will bow over the station June 6 at 6:30 p.m.

Titled "Portrait" the new series will cover subjects of historic, artistic or unusual nature such as the recent "Secret World" and "Portraits from the Past" which were shown over Assignment Four. Both telecasts were delightful television.

The first program will present "Portrait of Golden Gate Park" and will be filmed in color.

COMING PROGRAMS: Two important dates on KPIX's schedule: "Intertel Closeup" examining life in Canada, May 27, 1:30 p.m. Also on May 27, at 7 p.m. rebroadcast of widely acclaimed "Bridge Builders"—story of building of Golden Gate Bridge.

Guest panelist on "Doctor's News Conference" (KTVU, June 4. 9:30 p.m.) will be Wanda Ramey. The subject of the program for the evening will be "What Every Bride Should Know."

Scheduled for June 5 through 9th is KQED's annual TV auction. Any business wishing to contribute merchandise or services, may telephone KQED Auction Office, SU 1-8861.

"WHY?"

By Paris B. Simmons

Numerous cases of juvenile delinquency occur every day in our community. These cases are generally not brought to the attention of the police for many reasons. These episodes are relatively minor, but each may be a step towards much more serious offenses if allowed to continue unchecked.

Prior to describing a few of the current cases of Daly City delinquency, it is pointed out that the remarks contained in this column, in regard to such delinquency, must not be considered a reflection against, or criticism of our law enforcing agencies. Many times the police are thwarted in their attempts to prevent or control juvenile crime by well-meaning but misguided adult citizens. In addition, there are a variety of other obstacles, the most serious being that of the attitude of scorn given by the general public to the police officer, placing him in a position of a social-criminal, rather than his rightful position as protector of rights and trusted public servant. The adult public is responsible for these attitudes being developed in its youth. The men in blue should be able to rely on good citizens willing to assist in every possible way towards desired goals of crime prevention, at all levels of operation.

Following are a few of many cases which have been brought to the attention of the writer, involving Daly City delinquency. These are treated generally, rather than specifically, in order to avoid interference with authorities who may be working towards solution of the case mentioned.

Petty Theft: Numerous reports have been received in regards to young teenagers shoplifting, in practically every store in the area. The small stores are particularly hit around closing time, when teenagers find it convenient to steal liquor. Gym bags, purses or shopping bags are used to transport the stolen merchandise.

When discovered in theft, management generally gives a warning and releases the child. It is strongly recommended that a phone call be placed to the parents, in order that they may take corrective steps with the youngsters.

The amount of money involved in thefts of this type in Daly City must amount to thousands of dollars annually.

Cigarette Machine Thefts: Two methods of obtaining cigarettes from cigarette machines have been reported and these methods have been explained to authorities. For obvious reasons, they are not explained in this column. However, the method involved allows for release of several packages at one time.

Drinkouts: This is currently under investigation — a case of teenage delinquency of older teenagers involving drinking and sex orgies, sponsored by an adult group.

Automobiles: One case of a teenager driving a car with permission of an adult of mature age reported. In this case the car had been driven throughout the county, loaded with teenagers under age of licensing, which also included the driver. Driver only cited by police of neighboring community.

Delinquent Merchants: Advice received that some unscrupulous merchants are selling liquor to teenagers at greatly advanced prices. This evidentally is taking place in the metropolitan San Francisco area, but involves Daly City youth.

Party Crashing: This is becoming quite common. Young teenagers announce party to have it crashed by older teenagers, who proceed to take over, with property damage resulting, or the necessity of obtaining the assistance of police to control the teenagers.

Hiding Stolen Merchandise: A new method devised to get away with small stolen merchandise is the cutting of slits in lining of jackets in which the merchandise is shoved, then pushed to the back of the jacket. Searchers generally just check pockets, thereby missing the stolen merchandise.

Setting Up for Theft: An additional report received that youngsters will enter a store, such as a delicatessen and pick out a few items for purchase. While they are doing this, they place others within quick grasp for confederates, who will follow after them.

The preceding are but a few of the many cases reported to the writer. Most may seem minor, a few perhaps major. However, if community and parent will work together, a great decrease will be experienced, which will result in a long-range decrease of this type of delinquency.

COUNTY DOINGS

by JACK WOOD

Need of a more appropriate name for the Nineteenth avenue freeway was expressed at a recent public hearing in Redwood City.

The names of Borel freeway or Crystal Springs freeway were suggested by Kenneth Van Gundy, representing the San Mateo County Development Association.

On the list of projects submitted by County Engineer Don S. Wilson is completion of the Nineteenth avenue freeway from the San Mateo-Hayward bridge to Junipero Serra freeway and landscaping the first section now under construction.

Pacifica city councilmen have wired an emergency appeal to the Associated General Contractors to lift a construction ban placed on the city's $1 million sewage program as a result of the current Northern California strike of the construction company.

The project contractor, the Granville Construction Company, has agreed to proceed with work if cleared by the contractors' agency.

Sheriff Earl B. Whitmore claims he has no objection to his deputies organizing in unions as long as they use the union only for negotiations.

Jay Hartman, business representative for the union, said that it is the intent of the new unit to try to get relief in several areas other than salaries.

One thing the men want is a clothing allowance. Another is more say in the scheduling of compensatory time off for overtime they have worked. Another concerns the use of members of the Sheriff's Reserve.

Hartman said about 97 per cent of the sheriff's men have joined the union, which is scheduled to hold its organizing meeting June 13.

Fish And Game Dove Census

California's portion of the annual nationwide mourning dove census started last Sunday, May 20. A total of 56 randomly selected census routes, each 20 miles long, will be covered in this state; 41 by Department of Fish and Game game managers, and 15 by U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service game management agents.

This census is conducted every year to keep tabs on the dove population. Information from surveys in every state are compiled and used in establishing the Federal framework for dove hunting regulations.

Since 1953, when the census started, it has shown a general upward trend in breeding population of doves in California.

Summer Camp Offer Dropped

The Daly City recreation department withdrew its offer of a summer camp for Daly City residents this week.

Recreation Director Charles Vincent said the Edelweiss Ski Lodge on Highway 50, near Lake Tahoe, will not be able to install a swimming pool at the camp due to highway expansion difficulties.

Since the camp will not offer swimming, Vincent said, the idea of a summer vacation area was not feasible.

Attack Carrier Duty For David Follner

David M. Follner, fireman apprentice, US, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herman A. Follmer of 149 Mariposa avenue, Daly City, is serving aboard the attack aircraft carrier USS Ranger, a unit taking part in Exercise Pork Barrel, a ten-day Navy training operation beginning on May 14 off the coast of southern California.

Some 25 ships and 20,000 men of the First Fleet are in the exercise which centers around a fast carrier striking force opposed by submarine and aircraft. At-sea replenishment from various types of supply ships is another feature of Pork Barrel.

World's Fair...Fantastic Collection Of Inventions

SEATTLE—The World's Fair Monorail and the Space Needle are undoubtedly the best known landmarks of the Century 21 Exposition here.

Nothing is ever likely to happen to the Needle. It's built to last even though it's unique in its design. The Monorail has been tried elsewhere, but never as a commercial operation as is being tried here for the first time in the world.

The reinforced concrete pylons and reinforced concrete beamways, on which the Monorail trains run, exude strength. More than 15,000 tons of steel and concrete are used in the system.

So what is the first thing to go wrong with the Monorail?

A flat tire!

It took more than four hours to make the change. Think about it the next time a tire goes bad on the faimly car.

The red and blue trains which can race the 1.2 miles from downtown Seattle to the Fairgrounds in 96 seconds, can handle 450 passengers each. Each train consists of four cars weighing 20,000 pounds each when empty.

No Congestion

Alweg, Inc., builders of the system, predict Monorail is the answer to rapid-transit needs of the nation's congested cities.

Speaking of congestion, the Fair and its officials are proving their point—74 acres is more than enough for a World's Fair, when it's planned right. And 74 acres holds thousands of persons, easily, as was proved the day Russian Cosmonaut Titov visited the grounds. More than 76,000 persons were on the grounds, and there obviously was room for many thousands more.

As one lady visitor said while munching fried chicken at the Food Circus:

"Thank goodness there's only 74 acres. I'd never make it around any more than that."

Geoffrey Stevens, 19, of New Brunswick University shed another light on the size of the fair and how long it takes to see it all.

"It's possible to see the fair complete in 40 hours, if you are alone and don't stop," he said. Gate attendants said young Stevens was on the grounds daily for a week at 10 a. m. and didn't leave until about 1:30 a. m.

"A man with a family would probably need 16 hours a day for a week if he wanted to see it all," he said.

Man's Inventions

As for his impression of the fair, Stevens said:

"I found it fantastic. It is the greatest collection of man's inventions to this date."

Another inveterate World's Fair-goer was on the grounds last week. He is Count Basie, famed orchestra leader, who plays nightly in the fair arena.

Daytimes, he was on the fairgrounds trying to see it all. And all of it he almost did see. He turned up at the "Quick Draw Theater," Paris international wax museum, the Diamond Horseshoe and, of course, at all the main exhibits."

"Man, this is great," said the Count. "I'd like to stick around."

It's Never Too Late For Roses

Roses are full of bloom right now, and the gardener who failed to plant them during bare root season is apt to regret it. But there's no reason he should, for roses transplant easily from containers. And a check with the California Association of Nurserymen would indicate that an exceptionally good selection of container roses is available this year.

You have the distinct advantage, when buying roses in May and June, of choosing them when they're in leaf and bloom. This is especially appealing to novice gardeners, since most of them have trouble seeing how those "bundles of sticks" which roses seem to be during bare root season will ever become things of beauty. The transformation has now taken place, however, and a peek at your local nurseryman's rose show will prove it.

All-American

If you are name conscious, the name roses you'll most likely look for are the four All America Rose Selections for '62. These four, incidentally, give you a good cross section of the three main rose types—two are hybrid teas, one is a grandiflora and one a floribunda. The hybrid teas are Christian Dior, a red rose, and King's Ransome, a chrome yellow beauty. The grandiflora is John S. Armstrong, another vivid red, and the floribunda is Golden Slippers, as the name implies, a rich yellow-orange.

Names need not influence your choice, however, for as mentioned above, roses are in bloom and may be selected on their obvious merits. This is just another way of saying that your choice of container roses is not guided by the publicty given certain varieties at the expense of other good ones, old and new. Nothing but a rose's individual charm and beauty need be taken into consideration.

The Best Job

What should be taken into consideration after this is how roses can best do the job for you. Over and above their use as specimen shrubs, you might consider them for an informal flowering hedge. In this case, the compact and floriferous floribundas are the best choice. You might like a bank of roses against a sunny wall, in which case the grandifloras are unsurpassable. You might seek beauty in the individual bloom, in which case the Hybrid teas offer you the widest selection and the most perfectly shaped buds. Or you might consider lining a walk with the formal beauty of standard or tree roses.

There's another use of floribunda roses, too, namely keeping them in the container for display on a deck, patio or terrace. The many months of color which floribunda roses give you is unmatched by any other shrub which you can use this way. You can keep them in the five gallon nursery containers as a temporary expedient, but a more permanent planter box is that much more appealing.

Sunny Temperament

As most of us know, roses are happiest in the sun—at least half a day of this particular ingredient being necessary for the best results. They need regular watering by irrigation and should be fed at least once every month from now through September. Most nurserymen have their own pet formulas for feeding roses, and all of them seem to work. If you follow the recommendations of your local C.A.N. member you won't go wrong.

Occasional spraying is desirable to ward off aphis and other pests, which seem to like roses as well as we do. Spraying also controls powdery mildew, which bothers some varieties more than others. Choose a windless day to spray and soak the bush thoroughly, hitting both the tops and undersides of leaves and the cane right down to ground level. There are sprays of varying strength and effectiveness on the market, but whichever you use, be sure to read the label directions first.

When you plant a container grown rose among others in your garden, you might notice that the new one looks healthier and happier than the rest. If such is the case, it merely reflects the better care which your C.A.N. nurseryman has taken of the bush. It is also an indication of how well groomed roses can be with a minimum of effort. After all, your nurseryman had several hundred other plants to take care of beside that one rose. He couldn't have given it much time.

M. PAULINE BROWN

The children at the M. Pauline Brown School have been involved in many activities this past school year. On several occasions, their parents have had the opportunity to view interesting programs learned in school. Many children have showered honors on the school by receiving awards in competition with other children in Daly City.

In November, Barbara Redden, fifth grader in Mrs. Eleanor Blackman's class, received an award for her poster on fire prevention during the annual Fire Prevention Week contest. Recently an award was received by Bill Wilson, fourth-grader in Mrs. Sheila Weghorn's class, on his American Legion Auxiliary essay, "Why We Salute the Flag." In the citywide art contest, Fergus Thornton, sixth grader in Mr. Anderson's class, received several awards for his prize-winning oil paintings.

The M. Pauline Brown PTA scheduled many of their programs around pupil participation. In December, the Glee Club sang Christmas songs for parental entertainment. In March, the fifth grade presented a class lesson on knowledge learned in the heart and circulatory system. In May, a program on "Leisure Time Activities" was presented by approximately 50 students.

In all, the M. Pauline Brown School experienced a highly successful charter year. On June 14, its doors will close for the summer. Yet it will look forward to the opening of the 1962-63 school year on September 11th with the anticipation of again providing for the school children a learning environment which will be second to none.

Books Discussion Group Meets May 23

There will be a Great Books Discussion Group meeting at the Westlake Library, 275 Southgate avenue, Westlake, on Wednesday, May 23. The essay to be discussed will be J. J. Rosseau's "On the Origin of Inequality" from the book "Social Contract and Discourses." It may be obtained in paperback. Read the book and join the discussion.

Injured In Accident

Francine Beluin, 21, of 34 San Luis avenue, Daly City, was treated for bruises and abrasions, May 20, when a car driven by Charles E. Wingo, 22, of Oakland, careened off the northbound lanes of Bayshore freeway, a half-mile north of Willow road in Menlo Park, taking out 42 feet of fencing.

Wingo told patrolmen his car went off the roadway when he applied the brakes after another car cut into the center lane in front of him without signalling.

Car Theft Reported

Janet E. Brandt, 598 Atlanta street, Daly City, reported her 1957 Pontiac was stolen May 19 in front of 473 Knowles, according to Daly City police.

County Narcotics Chief Speaks To Colma PTA

"Narcotics peddlers do not kidnap children—they destroy them." This was a statement made at the final Garden Village PTA meeting of the school year by chief inspector A. L. Lamport of the San Mateo County District Attorney's office.

Chief Ray Savage in introducing Lamport, stressed the close cooperation of Lamport and the District Attorney's office with local law enforcement officials in handling local narcotics case. He pointed out that it was Lamport who organized the county-wide committee which keeps all local law enforcement units up-to-date on narcotics operations.

Lamport gave a comprehensive historical background on the illegal use of narcotics and traced the development of both the drugs and what action has been taken to deter illegal sales and usage.

After his general discussion of the subject he answered individual questions and gave the audience an opportunity to examine his complete display of materials employed by those dealing in the illegal narcotics trade.

At the close of the meeting Mrs. Jack Mitchell received the president's pin and Mrs. Jack Bertken was presented ith a past president's pin representing her two years of service to the unit. Mrs. Bertken was also given the publicity book covering the unit's accomplishments during her first year in office.

Serving as hostesses for the evening were first grade room representatives Mrs. Chiosso, Mrs. Fleischer, Mrs. Pera and Mrs. McKay. The pledge of allegiance was led by cub scouts of Den II, Pack 259.

Rainbow Auxiliary Elects Officers

Officers have been elected and obligations were received at the San Francisco Rainbow Auxiliary 2065 May meeting. Mrs. Margaret Collins, district president, was the installing officer with Mrs. Leah Bauer taking the gavel for the 1962-63 year.

Other officers elected are Mrs. Lenor Nicolas, senior vice president; Mrs. Velma Kulp, junior vice president; Mrs. Amelia Hall, treasurer; Mrs. Irene Libarry, chaplain; Mrs. Bobby Del Sol, conductress; Mrs. Mary Rusch, guard, and Mrs. Irene Murphy, secretary.

Chairmen have been appointed for the coming year, with many new money raising events or the agenda. The proceeds from these affairs will help to carry on the hospital and rehabilitation work during the year.

PIPELINE PILOTS TAKE A POWDER

Pipeline patrol pilots are making a splash in the oil industry and their success can be chalked up to a unique way of marking pipeline leaks, according to the National Automobile Club.

When a pilot spots a leak, washout, or other pipeline failure, he bull's-eyes it with a pound of yellow powder dropped in a paper bag. The brilliant splash of yellow clearly marks telltale patches of oil or discolored soil that might otherwise be hidden by grass or be too subtle to be spotted from the ground by repair crews.

That's one effective way of getting pipeline damage repaired in a hurry and of keeping the oil rolling merrily on its way.

Notes From The Schools

OLYMPIA SCHOOL

The children of Olympia School had an assembly Friday, May 18, in the multi-purpose room. Five classes presented a varied program, and slides taken of the Spring Festival by Mrs. M. Jones were shown to the group.

Mrs. Mattson's third graders dramatized one of the stories from their reading books. The cast for "The Three Sillies" included Laurie Bussenius, Christine Picchi, Margaret Milani, Pamela Colman, David Glass, Bruce Dilbeck, Ralph Teegarden, Stephen Press, Grant Burgoyne, Martin Blackfield and Robert Perry.

A choral reading, "Springtime Fun," was given by the entire first grade class of Mrs. Jones. backdrop on which the children attached signs of spring was painted by the children.

"The Little King's Rabbit" by a reading group in Mrs. B. Busetto's room was next on the program. Narrator for the play was Susan Racette. Cast members were Linda Barnes, Coliopi Giotinis, John Davidson, Larry Beukers, Joe LaCome, Greg Cannon, Cacalyn Royce, Roxanne Gibson and Susan Pratt.

Mrs. Snell's first graders sang "The Woodpecker Song," and "Oh, My Little Boy," accompanied by rhythm instruments.

An original puppet play, "The Missing Easter Egg," by Deborah Silen, concluded the program. The announcer was Cathy Bradish; the narrator, Katie Herald; and the cast consisted of Deborah Silen, Tommy Matteucci, Bobby Wagner, Lorie, Elchinoff, Rochelle Wolfe, Cathy Colwell and Cindy Toner.

On May 15, the third graders from Room 6 visited the Sanchez Adobe in the Linda Mar section of Pacifica and the M. M. deYoung museum in Golden Gate Park.

At the century old Sanchez Adobe, the children were able to view a structure built of adobe bricks. They could relate this to their Indian study as the Pueblos built their home of adobe.

At the deYoung museum, the children saw exhibits from the Navajo, Pueblo and Plains Indians, as well as from the Alaskan and South Sea natives.

They concluded their trip with a tour of the Japanese Tea Garden. Mrs. W. Bussenius and Mrs. P. Pilani accompanied the group.

IN CHINATOWN

How many fourth grade children have toured San Francisco's Chinatown? Mrs. Kathryn Gerdes, Mrs. Ann Byerly and Mrs. Sylvia Broderick, all fourth grade teachers, with two student teachers, Miss Kathy Crean and Miss Brenda Moser, took their classes of Abraham Lincoln Elementary School on a delightful and informative trip to China town on Thursday, May 17.

The classes visited a Buddhist Temple, the Chinese Theatre, where they heard Chinese music, and a Chinese newspaper, "The Chinese World," where each child was given a copy of the paper. At "The Good Earth" the pupils were served tea and fortune cookies to fortify them for a complete tour of the many shops, during which they observed Chinese architecture and oriental foods and wares.

A Chinese lady, seeing so many eager boys and girls on the narrow streets, stopped to talk to them and to share in their enthusiastic appreciation of her Eastern corner of the city.

Like most tourists—and all children—the sightseers were happy to settle down at Washington Square to consume their lunches and to discuss the many sights they had seen.

Fernando Rivera

In observance of President Kennedy's National Youth Fitness Week — May 6-12 — the boys at Fernando Rivera have completed championship softball games.

The Fernando Rivera All Stars and All-American were organized from the combined talents of each fifth and sixth grade classroom.

Team managers and captions were appointed by the Athletic Representative Coordirating Council. The fifth grade All-Stars captain-manager is Joel Carrara. The fifth grade All-American captain-manager is Frank Miranda. The sixth grade All-Stars captain is Louis Matteucci, and Charles Nelson is the manager. The sixth grade All-American captain is Louis Gernhardt, and Bruce Russell is the manager.

During the three-game championship league, the fifth grade All-Stars won the first two games to make them the school champions for their grade. The sixth grade All-Stars won their first game, 4-1, but lost their second game, 3-0. The deciding championship game between the sixth grade All-Stars and All-Americans was played May 11. A tremendous amount of enthusiasm was noticed throughout among the ball players and the student body.

The game started with the All-Americans at bat. The first inning went scoreless. During the second inning, Ricky Piercy, center fielder, stopped and caught a long, hard-hit ball by All-Star Bill Basnett that would have been a sure home run for speedy Bill. Later, Tony Uocita of the All-Americans hit safely to right field for a base hit. Mike Caldarola then got a hit to left, scoring Ricky Piercy who had walked for the first run of the game, the All-Americans led, 1-0. However, the All-Stars, more determined than ever, started a series of hits. One contributing factor to the final score, All-Stars 3, All-Americans 1, was Ron Mangean's double to left center.

Much credit must be given to the two pitchers, Ted Husperger, Room 12, of the All-Stars, and Louis Gernhardt, Room 8, of the All-Americans.

All the ball players demonstrated a great respect for the game and its regulations.

The softball champions for the regular fifth grade league were the Bobcats of Room 5; the Panthers of Room 11 were the sixth grade champions.

DANIEL WEBSTER

The "Danish Dance of Greeting" will open the May Festival at the Daniel Webster School on Friday, May 25, at 1 p. m. The third grade classes, directed by teachers California Koenig and Nancy Rice, will present this opening number.

"La Cucaracha" will be performed by the second grade classes. The teachers who have taught the dance are Barbara Schwartz and Alice Elario.

The fifth grade in Glenn Forcum's room will dance "Skip to My Lou." A special feature will be a baseball pantomime enacted to the strains of the "Stars and Stripes Forever."

"Indian Rhythms" will be the presentation by the first grade children.

Eleanor Carle and Gladys Gould have taught the dances and arranged the costumes.

The fifth and sixth grades in Eunice Wright's room will dance to "Nellie Bly."

"Indian Buffalo Dance" and "Do a Little Square Dance" will be offered by Eloise Heidland's afternoon kindargarten class.

A fourth grade class taught by Tom Notaro have prepared the "Virginia Reel" for their presentation.

The main feature of the program will be the traditional Maypole Dance, directed by Ruth Rogers. Selected third and fourth grade children have drilled on the weaving intricacies of the maypole.

To bring the program to a close all the children in the afternoon session will engage in one of the school's favorite activities. Accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Beverly Cooper and directed by Tom Notaro and Barbara Schwartz, several songs will be sung en masse.

The PTA has arranged to hold a cake sale in the multi-use room following the program by the children.

All parents and friends of the school are cordially invited to attend the afternoon's festivities.

VISTA MAR SCHOOL

On Tuesday, May 15, 1962 student representatives from Mrs. Frances Lanthier's fourth and fifth grade, Mrs. Angeline Friedman's fifth grade and Miss Harriet Gel's fifth grade met with Mrs. Ester Turcott, who is the intra-mural sports director for Vista Mar School, to discuss and plan for the spring softball games.

The boys from these three classes will begin their games during the lunch hour recess on Wednesday, May 15.

There will be two teams playing every Monday, Wednesday, and Friday. The officials for each game will be chosen from the members of the team which is not scheduled to play that day.

So that the girls may also participate in the spirit of the game, those who wish may join the cheerleaders group which is also being formed.

Periodic meetings between the representatives and Mrs. Ester Turcott will be held to discuss good sportsmanship and to clarify the rules of the game, should the need arise. Copies of rules and schedule are in the hands of each student.

Vista Mar school has been engaged in the second teacher education project, under the supervision of Dr. Alice Siemons of San Francisco State College. Four TEP students have been working in the building—Phyllis Kendell is working with Mrs. Paula Shepard, 1st grade; Fran Davi with Mrs. Jeane Oberlander, 2nd grade; Dani Felts with Miss Margaret Dwyer, 2nd-3rd grade; and Eloise Lambert with Mrs. Jane Cain, 3rd grade.

These students have been working students under resident teacher guidance. In the area of assuming responsibility for their own learning they planned experiences with the resident to assist in various areas of the curriculum—teaching a reading group, an arithmetic lesson, assisting in social studies, or working in the area of remedial instruction.

High School Grads Offered USAF Career

"High school graduates should investigate career opportunities now in all the military services," according to Lieut. Col. William W. Bailey, Air Force recruiting commander for northern California and western Nevada.

He said 1962 high school graduates should shop around before graduation, and "compare the benefits and training offered by the Air Force with those of other services."

"In this way," Colonel Bailey continued, "they can qualify for Air Force technical training today's high school senior can graduate and enlist immediately."

Never before in the history of our country has the Air Force been more in need of young men to learn to operate and maintain the complex equipment which comprises today's Aerospace Force, added Colonel Bailey. "As a result, the high school student who graduates, then enlists, can attend some of the finest technical schools in the world. And he can obtain valuable training in electronics and mechanics which will prepare him amply well for a career in the field of his aptitude."

Besides his technical training, the high school graduate will have the satisfaction of being a member of America's aerospace team, the U. S. Air Force, and knowing that he is serving in the defense of the nation in a vital, effective position that makes full use of his capabilities.

Information on the more than 42 career fields which are now open to promising young men can be obtained from Sgt. Lee Harrison in the Air Force recruiting office at 6268 Mission street in Daly City.

SF State Honors Daly City Man

San Francisco State College last week honored Daniel Henry Swett of 490 Westmoor avenue, Daly City, at a convocation ceremony in the Main Auditorium for outstanding achievement. The Honors Convocation serves as one of the college's climactic events of the term.

Acting president Frank Fenton, who retires this term after 32 years with San Francisco State, delivered his farewell address.

Daly City student Swett was particularly recognized for work in the division of social science, receiving his award from Dr. Eldon Modisette, the chairman of the division.

ASTRONAUT NEWS

"Let's write to Colonel John Glenn," suggested the first graders in Room 3 at Abraham Lincoln Elementary School on the day the famous astronaut made his history-making spaceflight. Over thirty letters were mailed to the Colonel, expressing the childrens' good wishes and congratulations. Then this week Colonel Glenn's answer came, expressing his thanks on behalf of all of the members of the Project Mercury team.

This response has really sent the pupils' imagination and energy off into space. The children have launched into a geniune interest in the subject. Their classroom bulletin boards are covered with photographs of space ships, launching pads, and various types of missles and capsules. They have written to most of the American companies connected with the space program requesting data and photographs, and from newspaper and television perusual they are gathering facts to fit into their "Space Project."

SF State Prof Speaks To PTA

"Discipline, a Problem of Home and School," will be the topic discussed at Avalon PTA this Thursday, May 24. Dr. George V. Sheviakov, professor of psychology at San Francisco State College, will be a guest speaker.

Mrs. Graham Rumble, newly installed president, will call a short business meeting to order at 8 p.m. The Avalon school band, under the direction of Howard Dudune, will perform. Cub Scout Pack 253, under the leadership of Hank Garcia, will present the flag. This will be the last PTA meeting of this school year.

AF Enlistments For Non-High Sch. Grads

Non-high school graduates are now being accepted by the Air Force.

Lieut. Col. William W. Bailey, commander of Detachment 606, USAF recruiting service covering northern California and western Nevada, announced that non-high school graduates may now be accepted for enlistment in the Air Force, provided they pass normal physical and mental tests.

In the past the Air Force has accepted only high school graduates. With this major change of criteria many high caliber young men previously unqualified may now be accepted.

Colonel Bailey reemphasized the Air Force policy of encouraging young persons to stay in school and graduate.

Interested persons may obtain additional information regarding this change and the many opportunities offered by the Air Force Aero-Space team of today by contacting the local Air Force recruiter.

Circus Day Held By A. Lincoln Children

Circus Day came to Abraham Lincoln Elementary School on Friday, May 18, when the children in Kindergaten B entertained their parents and friends with Big Top acts.

First appeared the tight-rope skaters with their vari-colored tasstle-topped hats. In this display the morning class was represented by Cathryn Chambliss, Mark Sterling, Linda Post, Alberto Barbosa, Kathy Kennedy, Steven Pavosavich, Diane Meagher and Robert Grosch. The afternoon skaters were Robert Barr, Nancy Waisanen, Debra Deasy, Richard Fitzgerald, Joanne Athens, Richare Morris, Debbie Welch and Daniel Kennedy.

Tapping Dance

Eight couples of clowns, with red and white clown hats, presented a whirling, clapping, tapping dance. The dancers were: Morning: Donna Harvie and Timothy Wahler, Kathleen Page and Dan McNab, Cindy Philbert and Robert Rebolini and Jenefer Svani and Peter Fiore. Afternoon: Nan Anderson and Gary Lewis, Pamela Hoefling and Roger Knott, Caryll Hall and Jose Vasconcelos, and Diane Broner and Bryan Locke.

Amid cheers the red-capped circus band paraded, led by Karen Boyd and Barry Balter. The marching musicians were Herbert Sala, Debra Gentis, John Church, Diane Leathley, David Jabs, Ann Marie Altamirano, James Connell, Robert Tringali, Richard Caldow, Morris Sherwood, Kathy Barton, Steven Bushner, Craig Maxwell and David Powell.

Merry-Go-Round

On imaginary horses the famous cowgirls and cowboys galloped about the ring. These hard riding western citizens were: Susan Denchasy, Mark Casey, Janice LaRock, Marc Begun, Susan Frecher, Jim Riegel, Maria Lekas, Paul O'Connell, Bill Schuler, Donna Abbott, Richard Klekman, Nancy Peterson, Curtis Huber, Kim Pardini, Daniel Martinelli and Janine Roche.

"Who would like to ride on the Merry-Go-Round-" was a question answered by eight couples of prancing, bobbing ponies. Around and around on the Merry-Go-Round skipped Patti Stavish, and John Storer, Cynthia Welch and Raymond Thompson, Vicki Hamilton and Michael Moran, Jo Petru and Timmy Summers, Anne Asher and Mario Paoloni, Joann Kerns and Mickey Leahy, Maureen Puppo and Keith Dacosta, and Dennice Riewerts and Terry Hunt.

The grande finale, in traditional circus fashion, consisted of a pounding, precision march by the entire company, followed by the gift of a bag of pop-corn to each member. "It wouldn't be a circus without pop-corn" exclaimed the children.

Because of their great strength, nickel alloy steels are used in landing gears of heavy jet transports.

Happy Social Hour At W. Wilson PTA

The call to order was given at 7:40 p.m., May 15, by Mrs. Nelson Hayes and a delightful evening had begun. The pledge of allegiance was led by Kathryn Hayes, a kindergarten student of Mrs. Eddy's class. Mrs. Lee led the devotional, a PTA prayer. The association granted permission for the board to act to conduct necessary business during the summer.

The formation of a council was discussed and it was decided to ask a speaker to a question and answer session to allow the association to be better informed before reaching a decision.

The president reported briefly on Convention Notes. The new theme of "Focus on Family, Faith and Freedom" was given with a few words as it pertains to each parent and teacher. Safety at home and on the streets was suggested for a happy summer. Recreation Programs will be publicized for the children during the summer as well as points of interest for family excursions.

The Historian's Report was presented as an impromptu skit by Mrs. Charles Tabucchi. She became, for the moment, the teacher and the recent past officers, the pupils.

Mesdames Manalastes, Quitonianos, Malurt Sherwood, K. Howard, Pacini, Bosnick, Dittmore, Luchessi, Kratovile, Mathews, Sagur, Cabig, Dodgers, Reid, Folley and Mc Allister contributed many dishes native to more than ten nationalities they represented. The parents and teachers enjoyed an unprecedented social hour of improvised and impromptu group singing and dancing following the childrens presentation. Indeed, they seemed reluctant to leave. City Of Hope Searches For Leukemia Cure

Leukemia, often called "cancer of the blood," is a disease for which there is now no cure. But the double-barreled drive against leukemia at the City of Hope is piloting the way to the conquest of the dread ailment, according to Michael DeBernardi, honorary chairman of the local campaign.

The first phase of the City of Hope's pilot program is clinical, he reported. In the bright children's wing, leukemic patients receive the benefit of every form of therapy medical science is able to provide.

Research comprises the second phase of the fight against leukemia at the City of Hope. Biochemists, cytologists, microbiologists and a host of other scientists strive constantly to find the key to the mysteries of this dread disease, and thus to bring about its eventual cure or control.

A letter from a child whose heart was "frozen" so that she might live was addressed to surgeons at the free, nonsectarian pilot Medical Center, near Los Angeles, who repaired a hole in the heart wall of a ten-year-old. "Thanks for making me well," she wrote. "I gave a puppet show for the kids in my backyard and made 77 cents. Please use it to help other girls and boys with sick hearts."

Such activities as those underway at the City of Hope point the way to additional progress in the drive to reduce the terrible toll of catastrophic diseases De Bernardi said.

The annual Volunteer Neighbors March is set for June 10th this year, while the entire month of June is to be declared as City of Hope Month.

New Daly City Administrative Assistant

Even Ma Yokum Couldn't Have Done Any Better

All that was missing was the corn pones and foggy mountain dew. The quiet community of Westlake took on the aura of a Kentucky mountain hamlet last Wednesday morning when Mrs. Chad Reade, 43, went 'coon trapping in her back yard.

The great trapping expedition all began three weeks ago when Mrs. Reade discovered a slight discrepancy in the number of fish supposed to be in her garden pool. Ten of the largest fish were missing and the water lilies somewhat disheveled.

The Daly City police were called in and decided it was a case for the humane society. The humane society, which must have had some training in the wildlife of Dogpatch, suggested that Mrs. Reade construct a raccoon trap.

Still not a believer, Mrs. Reade decided the villain was a cat, and covered the pool with wire mesh, anchored with bricks.

When the sun peeked over the San Bruno Mountains next morning four more of the fish had disappeared, with the wire and bricks neatly pushed aside.

It was at this juncture in the mystery that Mrs. Reade decided to heed the humane society's advice.

She constructed a trap and warning system whcih would sound in her bedroom when the crafty varmint appeared.

At about 2 a. m. Wednesday the time when the local stills close their doors, the bells went off in the Reade bedroom. The family arrived at the window in time to see the trap come down on a fuzzy raccoon, ending a three-week reign of easy pickins for Mr. 'Coon.

Mrs. Reade, who swore she was no kin to Snuffy Smith or Ma Yokum, turned the varmint over to the humane society. The society will keep the animal for a short length of time to see if it is a pet. If it appears of the wild vintage, they will take him on a long trip back to the hills to harass the mountain folk.

SENIOR CITIZENS ENJOY OUTING

On their regular weekly day of meeting, Wednesday of last week, the Westlake Senior Citizen Group took an outing. The particular location selected was Huddart Park, which is about 30 miles south of Daly City. There were about half a dozen cars in the caravan, led by the group director, Mrs. Alyce Madsen and the group president, Mrs. Beatrice Batz.

They all headed south on Skyline boulevard (State Route 5) to the junction with Ralston avenue, then along Ralston to the junction with Canada road and on to Woodside. Then west on Kings Mountain road about 3 miles to the picnic grounds.

This area can also be reached by following Route 5 to Kings Mountain road and going east on it about 2 miles. There are plenty of eating places with fireplaces, concrete floors, tables, benches and grass, all backed by luxurious evergreen woods and wonderful mountain scenery.

The group then enjoyed a treasure hunt which produced much laughter and many shouts of "I found it," then lunch. After lunch there was some group singing led by Robert Ceiley. This was particularly pleasant as the songs were mostly of a nostalgic nature and in the surroundings produced campfire effect. Then there was bingo, bridge, checkers, dominoes and croquet. Going-home time arrived all too soon and everyone voted the day a great success.

This group meets at the Baptist Church Auditorium on Southgate avenue at Elmwood street every Wednesday from 10:30 a.m. till 3 p.m.

The members bring their own lunches. Tea, coffee and cookies are served. The group is non-denominational and all senior citizens are welcome.

Vets Planning Poppy Drive On May 24-26

Veterans Of Foreign Wars Of The United States are planning their annual Buddy Poppy Sale, the primary object of this drive by the Veterans is the desire to pay tribute to the Nation's honored dead by helping the living.

One of the many ways in which this objective is attained is through donations to the Veterans of Foreign Wars National Home at Eaton Rapids, Mich. created in 1925 for the care of Widows and Orphans of deceased veterans.

This unique home, solely a project of the Veterans of Foreign Wars of the United States and supported by the National Organization, is situated on about 591 acres of valley farm land 4 miles southwest of Eaton Rapids, Mich.

Here a village is built, a Utopia for orphans of deceased veterans. Poppies also offer a source of employment and relief for needy and disabled veterans in their home communities.

For these reasons, between May 24 through May 26, when one of our girls or veterans approaches you, please buy a Poppy. Help this worthy cause and it will be appreciated by our organization. Don't turn them away. Purchase and wear the Buddy Poppy and be proud that you contributed.

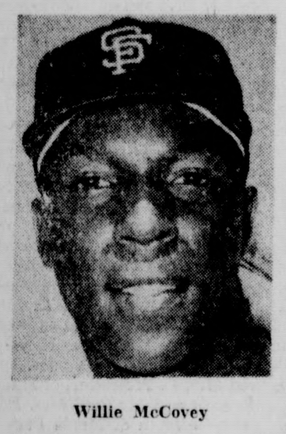
The Houston Colts' first trip to the big city by the Bay proved a rather profitable one last week. The Colt 45s, resplendent in their gray uniforms, split a four game series with the front-running Stoneham Boys, and left the windy premises of Candlestick Park with a rather high feeling of San Francisco hospitality.

Taking clues from last Friday night's debacle at Candlestick, some generalized statements can be made pertaining to the inadequacies of the Giants during the series. If these ills persist, the Giants could be headed towards a drop in class a little earlier than usual.



Willie McCovey

Ill number one was the erratic behavior of one called Orlando Cepeda.

Cepeda, who has always hit the ball pretty evenly in the past, has been struck with homerunitis. This illness seems to take over every time the Baby Bull steps to the plate. Last Friday night Orlando kayoed three out of four times at bat.

On one of his swings the ball was already being whipped around the infield before Orlando had stopped swinging. The big first baseman, who obviously has visions of another raise from the boss next season, should be put on the bench to cool his heels for a couple of games.

This cure would work two-fold. Because the other problem lies in the outfield. Friday night the left-field was patrolled by Willie McCovey, the almost converted first baseman. He dropped a sinking fly ball in the sixth inning which opened the door for a Colt run.

McCovey, whose outfield prowess reminds us of a dream we once had of Chubby Checker in the Swan Lake Ballet, was the recipient of many boos when he came to bat in the seventh inning. The fans failed to realize that Willie doesn't like the outfield any more than they like him being there. But he has a job to do, and, in our estimation, is doing it to the best of his ability.

His home run in the ninth and his homer Saturday leaves no doubt of his value to the club. Which brings us to a solution for the original problem of Cepeda trying to rain baseballs over the left-field barrier with every pitch.

Cepeda could be set down on the bench for several days or until such time as he decided the single is still a very necessary part of baseball. McCovey, who is also a very good first baseman, could fill in. This way the Giants could have power on first base and give Mr. Cepeda a chance to let the home runs turn from dollar signs to sense.

ON THE SIDELINES . . . Don Smith of Champion Speed Shop reports to us that the big Mr. Eliminator Title Race will definitely go off this Sunday at Half Moon Bay Drag Strip.

The race, scheduled for Sunday, two weeks ago, ran into some mechanical difficulties.

Last week we carried a report of Midget League player Billy Godkin of South San Francisco whose family renamed him "Willie" because of his home-run prowess.

Billy, or "Willie," was renamed again this week. This time they call him "Mickey" around the Godkin house.

While the New York Yankees were losing Mickey Mantle, home run slugger, Friday, the M & S Builders were losing Billy Godkin on Saturday, also home run slugger. Billy chipped a bone in his ankle, and like Mantle, is on crutches. Let's hope that the pennant chances of the M & S Builders aren't hampered too much.

The Daly City recreation department has been asked to act as coordinator of this event. Should you wish to sponsor a group of children, you must supply transportation and supervision. Should you desire any further information, contact the recreation department at PL 5-0850, Extension 18.

JEFF, WESTMOOR MEET VIKINGS

Westmoor's Rod Losberger, a little distraught over tumbling baseball fortunes of the Rams, has reached far down into his bag of tricks to pull out an ace in the hole.

The "new hope" which Losberger pulled out of the almost empty bag comes in the form of diminutive Tito Torres. Torres will make his prep mound debut this afternoon in a make-up game against the Mills Vikings in Millbrae at 3:15 p.m.

Torres, who has been holding down the fort in right field for the Rams, has been called on to bolster the two-man pitching staff. Both Harry Brown and freshman twirler Dave Williams have been getting some rough handling in the Peninsula League wars and need to rest from their shell-shock.

Next Friday the Rams travel to South San Francisco, with Brown slated to return to active duty. The slender senior, who has a 3-5 record, was selected because he threw his best game of the year on the Orange Park diamond. Ironically it was powerful St. Ignatius of San Francisco at whom Brown tossed a two-hitter only two months ago at South San Francisco.

If the senior can display some of the form which baffled the Wildcats of SI, the Rams could pull the rug out from under the highly favored Warriors.

Next Tuesday, local fans will get their last glimpse of the 1962 Rams and their last look at a Peninsula League game as the Rams close out their home stand against the Burlingame Panthers at Westmoor. The PL is due to dissolve on the completion of the 1962 baseball season.

Coach Steve Mezzera's Jefferson Indians trek to Mills next Friday for a duel with the second-place Vikings. Mezzera has delegated top hurler Bob Miller to do the mound chores.

The talented Miller, who divides his duties between the mound and first base, will have a big job on his hands if he expects to stop the front-running Vikes.

Rich Reitz and Rich Morton, Jeff's two power hitting outfielders, are expected to bolster the Indian's chances somewhat.

Last Friday the Indians fell to the .500 mark when they lost a 7-2 decision to the red-hot San Mateo Bearcats.

The Indian's Carl Carpenter had one of his rare bad days as he was tagged for seven runs on eight hits. To make matters worse, San Mateo's Al Cornejo was firing a three-hitter at the Indian batsmen.

Jeff got their first run in the third inning with the bags full when Carpenter came bounding across the plate on a fielder's choice.

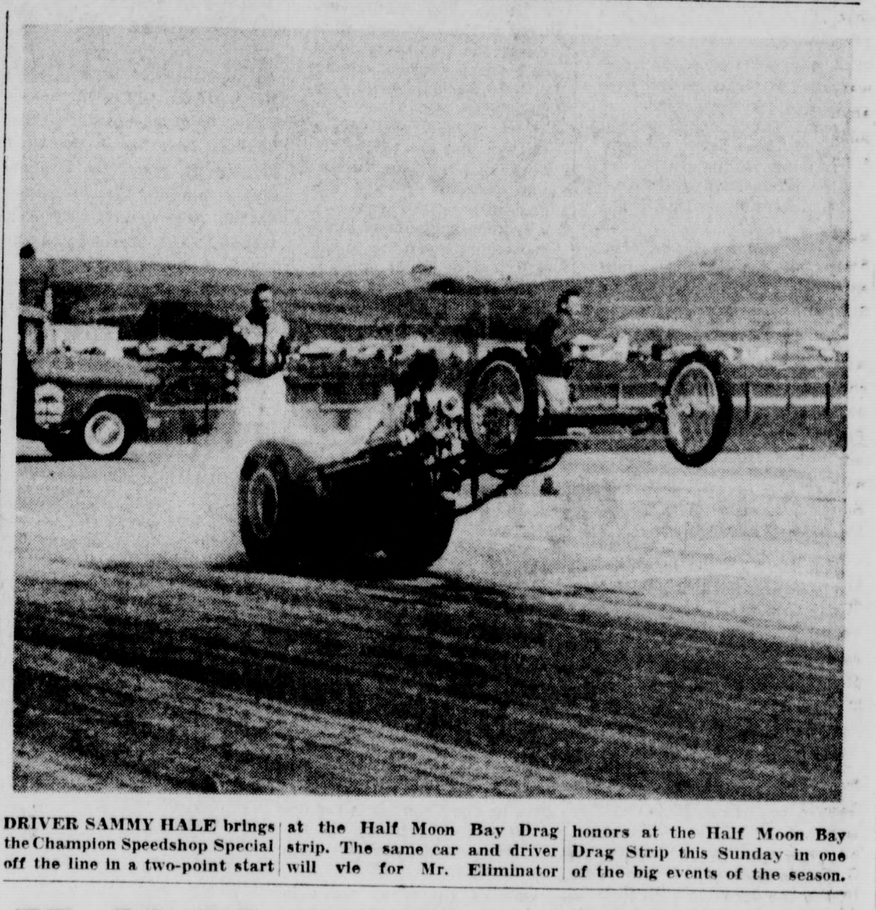
The Indians scored again in the sixth when Dave Nathan unloaded a tremendous triple to leftfield and same home on catcher Al Cacicedo's sharp single. Morton got the Jeffs' final hit.

Over at Westmoor last Friday, Losberger's crew met up with Capuchino's famed Wally Bunker and went down swinging, 10-0. Bunker handcuffed the Rams, setting them down with a single hit. Leftfielder Steve Schmuck blasted out a single in the sixth to spoil Bunker's no-hitter.

After Brown was shelled early in the game, Losberger sent in Williams and the big frosh performed commendably. He went four and two-thirds innings, yielding only two hits and two unearned runs.

SPORTS

CAPUCHINO'S Bill Peter Posten tees off on a Harry Brown pitch in Peninsula League action last Friday at Westmoor field. Ram catcher Mike Krnich awaits in vain for the ball which never came. Peter Posten was limited to a single.



DRIVER SAMMY HALE brings the Champion Speedshop Special off the line in a two-point start at the Half Moon Bay Drag strip. The same car and driver will vie for Mr. Eliminator honors at the Half Moon Bay Drag Strip this Sunday in one of the big events of the season.

CAHILL'S JUDO PRESENTS FUND RAISING LUAU SAT.

It's "Judo Week in South San Francisco" and the city's mayor today called for all-out support on the part of North Peninsula residents to help send a group of local judoists to Japan for training.

Mayor Leo Ryan, who proclaimed Judo Week at Monday night's City Council meeting, urged citizens of the entire area to "support the newest and most exciting sport I know."

"I'm speaking of the forthcoming Hawaiian Luau to be held by Cahill's Judo Academy," he said. "Funds raised will send local instructors to the homeland of the sport for advanced training prior to the Olympic Games in Tokyo in 1964."

Judo is to be an Olympic event for the first time during the 1964 games, an indication of the growing popularity of the sport.

"Professor John Cahill has commendable ambition to want to send instructors to Japan," Mayor Ryan said. "He knows the competition is tough, but, like all of us wants to keep America's name top in all aspects of athletics. Such a project will help develop first class judo participants."

"I saw my first judo matches at the Judo Black Belt Federation Tournament at South San Francisco only a few weeks ago and became an instant convert," he added. "It's fascinating and is equal to any spectator sport I know of."

The Cahill Academy holds classes in San Mateo and South San Francisco, and consists of about 200 judoists, some 150 of them being youngsters in the 5-to-16 age range. Students from the entire North Peninsula are enrolled.

The Luau will be held in San Francisco's Surf Club, 660 Great Highway, Saturday, May 26. Ticket information is available through John Cahill at JU 9-5257.

The menu features authentic Hawaiian food, much of it to be flown here fresh from the islands. Kalua pig—pig roasted underground in traditional Hawaiian manner, poi, chicken and long rice, lomi lomi salmon and a variety of island dishes will be served. Chef is George Houghtaling, noted bay caterer, and member of the judo club.

Featured entertainer will be Prince Kawohi, one of the nation's most famed Hawaiian singers. He formerly was star of the Harry Owens show and long was a headliner at the St. Francis Hotel in San Francisco. "The Prince" is the uncle of Frances Cahill, herself a Black Belter, of Valleywood Drive, San Bruno.

Several top judo acts will be featured, among them a chilling display of defense against attack by samurai sword; knife defenses; and the spectacle of a petite female tossing a husky masher onto his back.

The Cahill judo club, which puts on various demonstrations before various organizations, was honored recently by making its first appearance at San Francisco's Press and Union League Club.

Half Moon Bay Drags Features Champions

Stiff competition for fifth position on the National Eliminator list will make the drag contest at Half Moon Bay this Sunday one of the top challenge races of the year.

The race, originally scheduled for two weeks ago, was postponed to allow the dragsters to get in top mechanical shape.

Challenger for the fifth position honors is the California state champion, the Champion Speed Shop Special from South San Francisco. The supercharged Chevrolet dragster turns up speeds of 185 mph with e.t.'s in the low 8.30 bracket. Driving is Sammy Hale from South San Francisco.

Defending the national positio is the Master & Richter Special from San Leandro. The super-charged Chrysler Dragster has hit 189 mph in the quarter.

Competitive races between the two contenders are set for 1 p.m. Sunday. If a third race is necessary for two out of three wins, a final run-off is scheduled for 3 p.m. A total of $2,000 in awards and prizes will be offered.

As an added attraction Hans Gelin, San Francisco, will compete for honors and prizes in his 1961 superstock Chevrolet. His car is rated Northern California's fastest super-stock. Other top dragsters in the area will compete for prizes in speed and precision driving.

Gates open at 8:30 a.m. with eliminations at 12:30 p.m. at Half Moon Bay Drag strip, 26 miles south of San Francisco, on the Coast Highway.

DC-Colma Chamber Hold Annual Golf Tourney

The Daly City-Colma Chamber of Commerce will hold its Seventh Annual Golf Tournament on June 7 at the Lake Merced Golf Club, chairman Pete Markovich announced last week.

The tourney which draws some of the top golfers in northern California, will include a hole-in-one contest and many other prizes.

The committee will take 150 entries. Entry fee, which includes a roast beef dinner, is $15.

Last year's winners were Lou Gazzano, Bob Silvestri and Les Lesser, the latter two professionals.

Among the early entries in this year's tourney are Silvestri, pro at Cypress Hills; Ed Casagnetto, former San Francisco and northern California champ; and Art Linhares, Daly City policeman and state champ runner-up.

Markovich said that starting time will be given on a first come, first serve basis, with foursomes going off from 8 a. m. to 2 p. m.

Tickets may be purchased at the Chamber of Commerce office, 6454 Mission street, PL 5-2262.

Misracks Tied For 4th In Midgets

M & S Builders scored ten runs in a big fifth inning Sunday to take a 13-0 win over the PAL Sergeants and remain atop the Tri-City Midget Baseball League.

The Builders held to a 0-0 standoff for four innings by the pitching of Jerry Martinez, erupted for ten runs in the fifth on a combination of hits and errors.

Included in the hits during the rally were a triple by Bob Collins and doubles by Jerry Burke and Lory Bernardini. Bruce Collins, Bruce Brian and Sammy Perez teamed up with a fine pitching effort to shut out the Sergeants.

Misrack's Sporting Goods, Daly City's entry in the league, was idle but remains tied for four place—a game and one-half behind the leaders.

The PAL Detectives nipped Sun Valley Dairy, 6-4, to move into a second place tie with Parkview of San Bruno. Jim Skuza and Steve Pennington teamed up to pitch a four hitter. Skuza, in addition to striking out seven on the mound, led the way at the plate for the Detectives with three for four. Dave Stone chipped in with two for three and sparkled in centerfield with several clutch plays.

Ron Palla and Mike Verducci doubled for the Detectives' only extra base hits. Steve Murphy pitched the final five innings for the Dairymen and limited the Detectives to a single tally. Tom McGovern and Marsh Neil sparked butter and milk men.

Parkview took advantage of six San Bruno Merchant errors and coupled with the six-hit pitching of Nat Kriletich posted a 7-4 win over the Merchants. Kriletich struck out eight in his winning effort. Till Segali's two-run homer in the fourth was the winner's big hit. Shortstop Jim Kirkbride came up with a pair of fielding gems for Parkview.

Dennis Pandolsi, Jim Klotovich and Mike Rowley teamed up on the mount for the Merchants to kayo 12, while Mike Chiurco's two-run first inning homer led the way for the Merchants at the plate.

Final action for the day saw the Winston Seals get back on the winning trail at the expense of the PAL Officers. The game was a see-saw affair in which the score was tied twice and was decided in the last of the fifth when Winston scored a single run on three walks and a fielder's choice.

Paul Ancel and Craig Friar teamed up to pitch a four-hitter for the Officers but walks spelled their undoing. Tom Evans, Don Cline and Mike Callero shared the mound duties for the Seals. Friar added a double at the plate to his fine pitching effort for the Officers, while Mark Avner doubled and Alan Omand sparkled defensively to pace the Seals' win.

DALY CITY REC LEAGUE BALL OPENS FAST

California Frog Wins With 11-Foot Jump

A record crowd at the Jumping Frog Jubilee held last Sunday at Angels Camp, Calif., watched a frog named "Native" jump 11 feet-9½ inches to win first place in the annual competition that draws people and frogs from all over the world.

"Native," from a Calaveras pond, was entered by Matt B. Soares, a Wilmington, Calif., sheet metal engineer, who has participated in the nine previous frog jumps. He said this was the first time he had won anything. "Native's" winning jump brought Soares $300 and a trophy.

Close Second

In second place was "Two Snap" with a jump of 11 feet-6¼ inches. "Two Snap" was entered by Mike Voitich of Stockton and won $200.

"Old Mouldy" came in third with a jump of 11 feet-2¼ inches and made $100 for his owners, Leonard Hall and Bill Proctor of Delano, Calif. Hall won the frog jump last year with another frog, "Lots-a-Bull," with a jump of 15 feet-1½ inches.

The only frog to come close to last year's winner was "Dick," entered by Carolyn Voitich of Stockton. "Dick" jumped 14 feet-8 inches in the preliminaries but did not place in the finals.

Southern Competitor

The winner of the Foreign frog jump was "Biesepol" from Germiston, South Africa. "Biesepol" did 10 feet-3½ inches for his owners, Piem Fourie and G. Rahn, who had him flown to Angels Camp with two other African frogs by Pan-American Airways. However, in the finals, he jumped only 6 feet-4¼ inches.

Gov. Edmund G. Brown's frog, "Eureka," jumped three feet-2 inches to win the frog-to-frog jump off to which he had been challenged by Nevada's Gov. Grant Sawyer. Sawyer's frog did not arrive, and a substitute was put in at the last minute. The substitute was a loyal Californian and managed only two feet-8 inches.

Frogs were sent to Angels Camp by the governors of Illinois, Maryland, Oregon, Ohio, Connecticut, Missouri, Massachusetts and Arkansas, but none was among the 30 finalists.

Shortened Hopes

High hopes for "Sam Clemens," the Hannibal, Mo., frog entered by the governor of Missouri, John M. Dayton, were washed when he jumped only 5 feet-11¾ inches.

A frog jumped for Mark Twain's daughter, Clara Clemens Samassoud of La Jolla, and did 2 feet-10 inches.

Tennessee Ernie Ford's "Peapicked I" jumped 5 feet-9½ inches. "Can of Worms," entered as a protest by the Monterey Peninsula Parkway Committee against a proposed freeway with six massive interchanges, was apparently too depressed by the forthcoming damage to scenic beauty and jimped only 4 feet-8½ inches. A frog named "Today's Prices," from Pennsylvania, made a very moderate leap of 4 feet-11½ inches.

Foreign frogs were brought to the Jubilee from Spain by Iberia Air Lines of Spain and Australia by Qantas Airways. One was sent airmail from Holland in an airtight wooden box wrapped in heavy brown paper and arrived in good condition but not much of a jumping mood as it jumped only slightly over one foot.

It was estimated that well over 35,000 people attended the four-day Jumping Frog Jubilee and Calaveras County Fair this year.

WESTMOOR'S MIKE DANIELS takes the throw from shortstop Steve Funai in time to put out Capuchino's Tom Haxton at first base. Unfortunately every play wasn't as easy as Capuchino prevailed over the Rams 10-0.

RICK DREIER of Swanson's Westlake Bowl gives bowling instruction to some of the contestants in the Northern California photo queen and Miss Universe contest which will be held at Sigmund Stern Grove on photography day, Sunday May 27 from 11:30 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. left to right: front row: Janet Pola, S.F.; Lynette Fishel, Daly City; Carol Ann Maraccini, San Bruno; Jackie Portman, Sunset Cameras, S.F.; Phyllis Belcher, S.F.; Toni Ann Bommarito, San Bruno; Martha Squaglin, S.F.; Maureen Roberts, San Lorenzo. The 1962 baseball season is under way in Daly City. The Department of Recreation's Midget and Junior Baseball Leagues got off to a fast start on May 5, with 18 midget teams in two-9 team divisions.

All teams will play a round robin against the other 17 teams, but they are divided into two divisions, the Eastern and Western. These divisions will have their own champions based upon the best season percentage.

The Junior League has two divisions comprised of 8 and 9 teams. In the ational Division, heavy favorites, the Skyline Plaza Merchants, have already fallen victim to unwilling underdogs.

The PAL Tigers are showing a splurge of strength. OLM, BYA Flying A, Holy Angels Shamrocks and the PAL Cubs are all top-runners.

The 8 team American Division features such heavy guns as perennial favorites Daly City Drugs, Art Colvin BYA, Misracks, New Pisa, Parkmerced, South Sunset, and newcomers Silver Terrace and San Francisco PAL Yankees.

Returning to the coaching scene this year are several coaches who have been inactive. Randy Hix is working with the BYA Blazers along with Tony Contreras and Ernest Kerger. Lowell Creighton is giving Paul Campion a hand with the BYA Forresters. Edd Pittson is also taking time from his Flying Goose Sporting Goods business to return to the local diamond wars as coach of the San Francisco PAL Yankees.

MIDGET LEAGUE

OLPH came through with their first win of the league at the expense of the PAL Giants 8-3. Jim Gentle hit 2 for 2 and Russ Guidice 3 for 2 to star for OLPH.

The PAL Yankees took a shellacking at the hands of the PAL Constables as their pitchers had trouble finding the plate. Later in the week they pulled themselves together and downed the Holy Angels Colts 6-0. Joe Lesser collected 4 for 4.

Parkmerced came to life this week with a pair of wins. They downed the Holy Angels Lions 10-0 and came back on Saturday to take the PAL Braves 5-3. Fill Frahm of Parkmerced tossed his third one-hit victory and raised his total strike outs to 36 in three games. Frahm also rapped out a homerun with one aboard to pull the game out of the hole. Misracks kept their record clean by edging out South Sunset 12-10, over coming a 9-0 lead to win. Big hitters were Steve Gudelj, Tom Owens, Abe Shaffer and Jim Penellie. Lennie Barnette's PAL Indians copped a pair this week to retain the lead in the Western Division. Tom Belvin tossed a shut out. Smyser hit 3 for 4 and . Inge clobbered a home run as the Indians dropped the Holy Angels Colts -0. Indian batters gave the BYA Forresters pitching staff nightmares (Runge 4 for 4, Kiser 3 for 3 and Smyser 2 for 4) in a 15 to 5 win over the Forresters. The Forresters broke even for the week with a win over the PAL Braves 4-1. Morton starred for the Forresters with a fine pitching performance and good platework.

Joe Cordera's Holy Angels Lions took the measure of the PAL Giants 6-2 in a close one. Ed Vasile did a big job at the plate with 3 for 3. Dupont looked good on the mound and Gary Bliss promising. George Harrison Realty edged out OLM 9-7 in a hard fought game but earlier in the week the PAL Redsox' Bobbie Nolan allowed them only two hits and Mike Ginerts and Mike Dowdell rapped out 3 for 4 as the Redsox added Harrison Realty to their collection 10-0.

JUNIOR DIVISION

The American Division of the Juniors saw the Daly City Drugs team win a close one over Art Colvin BYA 4-0 then come back on Saturday with a 9-1 win. In the first game there was a real mound dule. Krnich of the Drugs allowed only three hits while Herbert of BYA gave up four. Starkovich hit 2 for 3. The second game was highlighted by four double plays by the Drugs. Egan of the Drugs gave up four hits while Stefani of BYA gave five and hit 2 for 2. Silver Terrace squeezed by Misracks 9-8. Misracks outhit the Terrace boys 10-9 but coud not put the extra run across. New Pisa dumped the PAL Yankees.

Learn To Swim At Jefferson High School

The Jefferson Union High School district has announced dates of the summer swim campaign sponsored jointly by the district and Golden Gate Chapter of the American Red Cross.

Instruction will be given at the Jefferson Union High School pool in Daly City. The courses commence June 18 and will run through August 25. There will be five campaigns, each campaign running ten days, and each class one-half hour long. Instructions will be given from 8:30 a. m. to 1 p. m.

These classes will be taught by accredited Red Cross instructors, and are available to non-swimmers, beginners, intermediate and swimmers.

Registration blanks have been distributed to all elementary schools and must be properly filled in and returned in person with a fee of $3 to Jefferson Union High School in care of Michael Orlich. Registration hours will be evenings from 7 until 9 o'clock and Saturday from 2:30 until 4 p. m. Registrations will commence Saturday morning, May 26, at 9 a. m.

Michael Orlich, athletic director at Jefferson, in charge of the Red Cross swim campaign, said:

"This summer's swim campaign is designed to train youngsters in the rudiments of swimming and water safety. Many drownings are the result of ignorance or carelessness. Red Cross water safety training combats both of those major causes of catastrophe. We urge everyone who cannot swim to avail himself to the opportunity offered by the Jefferson Union High School district and the Red Cross."

Elem Board Agrees On Rec Contract

The Jefferson elementary school board Monday, April 21, agreed in principal with a contract with the city recreation board in which each would pay 50 per cent of any capital outlay for recreation.

The board had put off agreement May 7 to pay $12,500 to cover the immediate cost of the summer recreation program, taking the position they would not make the funds available until they had the opportunity to sit down with the council and iron out some of the problems the two boards have been faced with the past four years.

A written agreement on "who would be responsible for what" will be prepared by attorneys for the city and school district, according to district superintendent Richard Foster.

SAN MATEO HISTORICAL SOCIETY VISITS NORTH PENINSULA AREA

Another pilgrimage into San Mateo County's past is planned by the San Mateo County Historical Society for their Spring meeting Saturday, May 26.

The pilgrimage by chartered bus will take society members and their guests on a tour of famous historical spots in Northern San Mateo County and to Mission Dolores in San Francisco.

Lunch will be served by the Native Daughters of the Golden West in Daly City.

The day's itinerary includes a stop at the spot on Sweeney Ridge where San Francisco Bay was first seen by a member of Casper de Portola's exploring party in 1769. The "mission era" will be revived with a visit to Mission Dolores in San Francisco formerly, Spain's most northerly outpost on the California coast.

The mission, protected by the Spanish garrison at the Presidio, was operated as an immense ranch with activities spread over the entire Peninsula area. Its farming centers were at San Mateo and at Pedro Valley and its vast sheep and cattle herds roamed over our hills. The Mission is historically as much a part of San Mateo county as of San Francisco county.

The "days of the Dons" are seen in the Sanchez Adole in Pacifica, built by Don Francisco Sanchez in 1848. This authentic Spanish adobe has known many occupancies since the death of Don Francisco, one of the most respected men of his time. It was the home of General Edward Kirkpatrick, a Civil War veteran, but later it degenerated into a hunting lodge, a bootleg saloon, and for a time an artichoke packing shed. It was finally purchased in 1947 by San Mateo County, restored, and is now administered as an historical monument. It contains many interesting mementos of early Spanish days.

Tour-goers will also visit the site of the famous Broderick-Terry duel; Twelve Mile House, a century-old road-house that is still in operation; see the site of the old mission trail to San Pedro; hear about Sneath's Dairy on Sneath Lane, a flourishing operation in the 1880's; and see the largest living laurel tree in California, which is on San Francisco Water Department property.

Reservations for the tour may be made by contacting the San Mateo County Historical Museum at 124 Baldwin Avenue, San Mateo; DI 2-1429. Dr. Frank M. Stanger, Museum Director, will direct the tour.

Louis Chess Is Unopposed In Supervisor Race

Supervisor T. Louis Chess, currently serving as chairman of the board of supervisors, who has no opposition at the polls on June 5th, is nevertheless campaigning to gain a large courtesy vote.

Claude J. Hirschey, Chess' county committee chairman, said that it was characteristic of his candidate to energetically seek support, even though he has no opponent.

In Hirschey's opinion, Chess has achieved an outstanding record during his first four-year term on the board.

Louis Chess

"Chess has always been a strong advocate of a balanced economy in the county in order to keep taxes at a minimum level. To accomplish this, he has devoted full time to his job since his election in 1958," Hirschey said.

"Chess' long experience as a Southern Pacific executive provided him with the necessary business qualifications to effectively deal with the county's financial and administrative problems. As a result the county still boasts one of the lowest basic tax rates in the entire state.

"Chess is the kind of public official who likes to get out in the field and study problems first-hand. He does this every day and has stated that he will continue to do so as long as he is on the board," Hirschey declared.

In addition to his duties as supervisor, Chess has been extremely active in state and regional affairs as they relate to the county. He is a director of innumerable important local and state associations. He likes to get around and meet people and get their viewpoint.

Candidate Brophy States Intentions

John J. Brophy, candidate for San Mateo county tax collector, visited the Daly City area last Thursday.

Brophy, who is assessor-auditor of Redwood City, is president of the California Society of Municipal Finance Officers.

He is past president of the Association of Bay Area Governmental Accountants, the Sequoia Kiwanis Club, the Holy Name Society of Mt. Carmel Church and one of the organizers of the Peninsula Parochial Athletic League.

The St. Mary's College graduate said: "My 26 years of experience in municipal finance qualifies me, I believe, to follow a series of excellent tax collectors for San Mateo county.

"This county is increasing rapidly in fiscal stature, in population, in building development and in assessed value, said Brophy.

"I am confident my qualifications and background will enable me to perform the same service for the citizens of San Mateo county that I have accomplished during the past 16 years in Redwood City."

Youths Cited For Drinking On Coastside

Pacifica police last weekend arrested one 18-year-old San Francisco youth and cited a dozen other teenagers to juvenile court for drinking and having alcoholic beverages in their possession.

It was the second time in as many weekends that a teenage dance erupted in a wave of juvenile drinking and violence.

A 15-year-old Terra Nova High School student swung at Reserve Officer Russell R. Yorks as he attempted to apprehend the youth at a teenage dance at Pedro Valley School.

Searching the boy, he found a pair of wooden knuckles and a can of beer hidden in his clothing. Reserve Officer A. J. Gilfillan also stationed at the dance, reported he noticed a group of boys holding up a 14-year-old youth who was so drunk he could not stand.

Two weeks ago officers quelled a similar disturbance involving some 100 youths at Linda Mar School.

Juveniles Held For Coin Thefts

Two juvenile "friends of the family" have admitted to Daly City police of making a living from William Oswood, a shop supervisor at Hunters Point, who lives at 11 Northridge, Daly City.

The youths, aged 14 and 15, have admitted ransacking Oswood's residence six times the past several months, carrying off some $400 worth of coins and currency.

Police said the youths entered the home twice in March, twice this month, once in April and once in October last year. All the break-ins occurred in broad daylight. Police said the youths had spent all the money.

Garden Shop Is An Interesting Place

Customers made off with free seeds and several prizes last week at the grand opening of the Western Garden Shop at 1851 Junipero Serra boulevard in Daly City.

Managers Bob Bertolani and Fred Seager were on hand to greet the customers and show them their complete line of nursery stock and garden statuary.

Children were especially interested in the pet department, a regular "barn" and corral which houses chickens, rabbits and ducks.

Bertolani and Seager, who are landscape gardening consultants, gained their experience in the gardening department of Sears and Roebuck Company.

They explained that the store is stocked with redwood tubs, trellises, bamboo fencing, fertilizers, insecticides, hose and garden aids.

Once called by several residents "the black place," the Garden Shop is now cleverly the pet supply.
designed in bright colors over a dark exterior. The interior is planned for mothers with children. The floor is concrete, making it easy to roll baby strollers.

Bertolani and Seager combine the garden and pet shop nicely, using a technique often seen in Europe. The response has been favorable and an aviary for birds is now planned.

So now, besides the rabbits and other animals, there will be canaries, budgies and parrots.

Seager said other members of the animal family, a lamb and guinea pigs, will be added to

The Garden Shop is open seven days a week and until 9 p. m. on Friday. The store houses the largest supply of garden statuary in the area. This fact, coupled with the general quality and diversity of the merchandise and the open air effect of the shop, should guarantee its success.

Creative Dancing For Pacifica Tots

The Dick Ford dance school, in cooperation with the Pacifica Nursery School, is presenting classes in creative dancing for boys and girls, and classes for tumbling for boys, beginning on Tuesday, June 26.

A second four-week series of classes will be held during the latter part of summer, beginning July 26.

Ford, who can be seen on KQED, Channel 9, Fridays at 5:30 p. m., employs teaching methods using a story idea to bring dance to this age group as well as the use of props.

In the dance classes, the children will learn the different body parts and what each part is capable of doing in movement. The goals are to help the children express themselves confidently and develop poise.

The price is $12 for the four-week session, and the beginning age for enrollment is three and one-half years. Reservations should be made in advance by calling one of the following: Mrs. Hahn, FL 5-5769; Mrs. Dewey, WY 2-1328; Mrs. Bushberg, WY 2-1838.

ABNORMAL TIRE WEAR

Front wheels out of alignment are not the only cause of abnormal tire wear, points out the National Automobile Club.

Loose wheels, or those out of true, are also a source of trouble. This applies to the rear wheels as well. It's a good plan to jack up the wheels occasionally and spin them.
